6. Competition Numbers - Advertising

The assignment of numbers will be decided by means of a draw within each class. The organisers reserve the right to assign certain numbers.

It is the responsibility of the entrant to supply himself with 3 sets of competition numbers (and to ensure that the numbers remain clearly visible during practice and racing) to be displayed:

- on the front doors or alongside the cockpit on both sides of the car
- on the roof of the car, towards the right hand side, readable from the front;

7. Signing on and scrutineering

Signing on and Scrutineering will take place according to the timetable issued in the Final Instructions.

All entrants, or their duly authorized representative, must be present for the administrative checking, which will take place before scrutineering.

At scrutineering, drivers equipment (helmets, overalls, gloves, balaclava) must be produced for approval.

No car may take part in qualifying practice or racing prior to approval by the Scrutineers.

The race numbers and advertising signs must be affixed on the car before scrutineering.

Safety equipment of historic cars competing in Belgium and model of the scrutineering form are available at www.spaonehour.com

8. Insurance - Responsibilities of the Drivers

The entry fees include the insurance premium, which guarantees the competitor unlimited cover for civil liability towards third parties. The insurance cover will come into effect during qualifying practice and from the start of the race and will cease at the end of the race or at the moment of retirement, disqualification or exclusion.

A document renouncing any recourse to legal action against the Organisers shall be signed during the administrative checking. Drivers participating in the practice sessions and the event are not considered «third parties» among themselves.

The competitor will be above all responsible for ensuring that all the persons concerned with his entry respect all the laws and regulations. If an entrant is unable to attend the event in person or if this is a corporate body, he will appoint a representative in writing.

The competitors must ensure that all the cars remain in conformity with the conditions for eligibility and safety throughout the practice and the race. The fact of presenting a car for scrutineering will be considered as an implicit declaration of conformity.

Throughout the competition a driver or any other person looking after an entered car, will not be freed from his responsibility regarding the observance of the regulations by the mere fact that the competitor or his representative is officially responsible.

9. Fuel and refuelling

Fuel is available at the petrol station located inside the paddocks down to the Eau Rouge. Automatic payment can be done with credit card.

Refuelling is allowed during the race. (Splash & dash if required). The refuelling will take place in the allocated
